19th March 2020.

Dear Brother Secretaries,

The PGSR, Rt Wy Bro David C Staniforth and his Deputy, Wy Bro Alan P K Webster are obviously concerned that all brethren of West Yorkshire and beyond remain fit and healthy during our enforced lay off from our Conclave meetings.

To this end, the one feature that sets us apart from other Masonic orders is that not only do we have Secretaries who carry out many duties, Benevolent Stewards who attend to those brethren in need but that we also have Conclave Visiting Deacons who also attend to our brethren.

It would therefore be considered a great relief to our PGSR and his Deputy if some kind of contact could still be maintained with our brethren, especially the elderly who may be of concern, in the coming months. They are sure that many Conclaves already have attended or are attending to this matter as our Order is a very caring one and always looks toward the welfare of its members.

Once again please keep fit and healthy and we look forward to a time when we can all meet together again.

Wy. Bro. Richard Drury-Smith PGStB,
Provincial Grand Recorder.
